

The Daily Courant.

Monday, December 13. 1703.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 7.

Vienna, November 24.

We have receiv'd Advice from Bavaria, that the Count d'Arco is marching to succour Kuffstein with 8000 Bavarians, and that thereupon General Heister has posted some Militia Troops to defend the Passages, and sent Order to the Danish Troops that are to take Winter Quarters in Tyrol to hasten their March to joyn him, in order to enable him to make Head against the Enemy.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 7.

Strasburg, Nov. 26. Letters from Memmingen of the 19th advise, that on the 11th the Elector of Bavaria laid Siege to Kempten an Imperial Town on the Iller; in which the Regiment of the Prince of Baden, commanded by the Count of Eck, was garrison'd. Which after having defended the Place 3 days, yielded it up, on honourable Conditions, and march'd out, after having oblig'd themselves to leave behind them 4 Pieces of Cannon 30 Pounders, which the Prince of Baden had put into the Place. A Detachment of Bavarians, much about the same time, took Possession of the Imperial Town of Kaufuren situate on the Wertach. His Electoral Highness of Bavaria, after the taking of Kempten, pass'd the Iller a little below Memmingen, having in his March taken in the Castle of Grunenbach, near the Iller; by means of which he is Master of all the Country between the Iller and the Inn, in which the Prince of Baden design'd to have quarter'd his Army this Winter. On the 18th the Elector of Bavaria receiv'd the News, that General Weickel, whom he had detach'd to succour the Castle of Kuffstein, had forc'd the Passages in which the Imperialists had intrench'd themselves, and had oblig'd them to raise the Siege, which they did with great los, abandoning their Cannon and Mortars.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 7.

Vienna, Nov. 28. On the 25th arriv'd a Messenger from General Heister, with Advice, that that General, no being able to draw together Troops sufficient to enable him to oppose the Enemy, and to carry on the Siege of Kuffstein at the same time, had thought fit to draw off from before that Place, and had done it in good Order.

Vienna, Dec. 5. A Courier arriv'd last night from Tyrol, with an Account, That after General Heister had rais'd the Siege of Kuffstein, the Baron of Seafeldt, Commander of that Garrison, march'd out with 700 Men and 2 Field-pieces, to drive the Imperialists from some Posts they had fortified near Kutsbuhl, but was in his March surprised in a hollow way by a Party of Dragoons, commanded by a Lieutenant of the Regiment of Prince Engene, sent out by General Guttenstein to observe his Motions, who, when the Enemy was entred the hollow way, charg'd them from the higher Ground on each side so warmly, that they kill'd 200 of them on the Spot, and took as many Prisoners; The Comander himself being wounded, and endeavouring to make his Escape, was seiz'd by a Peasant, and brought with the rest of the Prisoners to Rothenberg.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 4.

From the Imperial Camp at Deutenhoffen near Léushkirken, Nov. 23. Some days ago, the Marshal de Villars sent a Trumpet to the Prince of Baden, to desire a Passport for himself and his Servants, and another for the Count de Marlin his Successor; which the Prince refus'd to grant, as a thing he had not power to do without express leave from his Imperial Majesty. We cannot comprehend for what reason it was not thought worth while to succour Kempten, a Place so near us. The Lieutenant that commanded in Grunenbach has been broken by the Prince of Baden, for making no better a Resistance.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 7.

Azburg, Nov. 29. 'Tis said General d'Arco is advancing towards this City, but we are in a good condition of Defence. The Prince of Baden has assur'd General Bibra, who commands the 6000 Imperialists garrison'd here, that he will hold his Army in a readiness to succour him whenever there shall be occasion.

From the Camp of the Prince of Baden at Alschausen, Nov. 26. On the 21st the Enemies Army appear'd in order of Battle in sight of our Camp, which they did, as we are inform'd since, to favour the Passage of a Convoy that was coming to them from SchaffhuySEN, and which arriv'd on the 24th and brought them, 'tis said, 70000 Louis d'Or, Cloathing for 15000 Men, and several Officers. This Convoy being guarded by 6000 Men, General Palfi, who was posted in a narrow way with 1600 Horse was oblig'd to let them pass. Two days ago, on Intelligence that 500 French were Foraging about Ridlingen, the Prince of Baden order'd out 400 Men, who cut them all off, giving no Quarter.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Dec. 18.

Frankfort, Dec. 12. The Prince of Baden having visit'd the Lines of Buhl and Stohloffen, and having given the necessary Orders for defending those Lines and all the Passages of the Rhine from thence down to Manheim, arriv'd some days ago at Aschaffembourg, where he designs to continue some time, and is at present seiz'd with a Fit of the Gout. Several Envoys and other Persons of Quality are gone from hence thither to confer with his Highness. The Army of the Empire, which that Prince has left to be commanded by General Thungen, is separated and already gone into the Winter Quarters assign'd them in Swabia, and that part of Austria which borders on the Lake of Constance. The Body commanded by Count Surum is canton'd about Kerkheim, and that General has obtain'd leave to repair to Vienna.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 18.

Heylbron, Dec. 8. By Letters from Ulm and other Places, we are inform'd, that Ausburg is besieg'd by the Bavarians. And that a great quantity of Artillery and Ammunition is carried thither to be employ'd in the Siege.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Dec. 18.

Heylbron, Dec. 11. They write from the Danube, that Ausburg is besieg'd by the Bavarians, that they have rais'd 8 Batteries against it, and fire upon the Place with 140 Pieces of Cannon and 40 Mortars.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Dec. 7.

Paris, Dec. 7. The Marshal de Villars is return'd hither from the Army on the Danube, and was very favourably receiv'd by the King.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 7.

From the Imperialists commanded by General Herbeville encamp'd before Amberg, Nov. 30. On the 28th in the Afternoon the Besieged seeing we had made all ready for a general Assault, beat a Parley and offer'd to Capitulate; And the following Articles were agreed on, I. The Officers of the Garrison shall march out unmolested with their Horses, Baggage, &c. II. A List shall be taken of the Number of the Soldiers, who shall be conducted to Ratisbon, and within a Month

Month at furthest shall be exchang'd for a like Number of Imperialists. III. The Council Regent and other Officers of the Town, shall be continued in the quiet Possession of their Privileges, Liberties, and Salaries. And if any one is minded to retire to some other Place, he shall carry with him all that belongs to him. IV. All the Artillery and Ammunitions shall be deliver'd to the Imperialists, except a certain Quantity which the Soldiers are allow'd to take with them. Accordingly the Garrison march'd out to day; and consists of 12 or 1500 Men; The Count of Hohenzellern is made Governor of the Place, and General Auffas Governor of all the Upper Palatinate.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 18.

Amsterdam, Dec. 18. We have receiv'd from the Neutral Countries, the printed Ordinance of the 30th of October last publish'd in France, for obliging the Country to furnish Recruits of Infantry out of every Parish of the Provinces and Districts of that Kingdom. Which Recruits amount to 30000 Men, as appears by the following Repartition.

The District of Paris furnishes 1800. That of Amiens 1000. Artois 600. The Lower Flanders 200. The Upper Flanders 400. Hainault 300. Soissons 900. Châlons 2200. Mets 700. Dijon 1000. County of Burgundy 1200. Moulins 1000. Bourges 500. Orleans 1200. Caen 600. Alencon 1000. Rouen 1000. Lions 300. Dauphiney 800. Provence 400. Languedoc 2200. Riom 900. Montauban 2000. Bourdeaux 2000. Limoges 800. Tours 1600. Poitiers 800. Bretagne 2400.

To facilitate the levying of these Men, those that are taken into the Service are intituled to certain Privileges granted by an Ordinance of the 2d of November 1702. the chief of which are, that they shall not be oblig'd to serve longer than 3 Years, after which they shall be exempted from all Taxes for 5 Years. But if any Persons married or unmarried that are put into the Lists by their Parish, shall absent themselves from their usual places of abode, his Majesty's Intention is, that they shall be reputed Deserters, and as such seiz'd and chain'd to be sent to the Galleys, without any Form of Process. And to encourage the Prevors and other Officers to use their utmost Diligence in apprehending such Persons, they are to receive 50 Livres for every Man they apprehend. And all Mayors, Sheriffs, &c. are forbidden to purchase Soldiers in the room of those nam'd by their own Parishes, or to admit any others tho' they should voluntarily offer themselves, on the Penalty of being fin'd 300 Livres, &c.

This Ordinance is so considerable, that we shall give it at length next Post.
